

Advertisement for Teacher needs in STEM schools

The Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics-STEM Public Secondary Schools of Egypt, established by the Ministry of Education to provide quality education through integrated curriculum, project based learning, real world applications, critical thinking and a pioneering spirit, are expanding and, therefore, interested in hiring:

1. Teachers
2. Deputy Principals
3. Principals

to fill new positions in secondary schools in Alexandria, Dakahlia Kafr El Sheikh, Assiut, the Red Sea, Luxor, Cairo, Giza, Ismailia, Gharbeya, and Menofia.

The required Qualifications for teachers are as follows:

1. Must be a current Ministry of Education SECONDARY School Teacher at a Public Language or Experimental school
2. University graduate (preferably with post graduate degree)
3. Well versed in any of the following subjects: Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Geology, Arabic, French, German, Social Studies & Computer
4. No more than 45 years old
5. Proficient in the English language
6. Capable of being a STEM problem solver teacher
7. Ready to be part of the continuum of professional development training provided at each school by international STEM experts in collaboration with the Professional Academy for Teachers.

The required Qualifications for Principals or Deputy Principals are as follows:

1. Must be a current Ministry of Education at a Public Language or Experimental school
2. Proficient in the English language
3. University graduate (preferably with post graduate degree)
4. Well versed in any of the following subjects: English, Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Geology
5. Ready to be part of the continuum of professional development training provided at each school by international STEM experts in collaboration with the Professional Academy for Teachers.

To learn more about STEM schools, please visit www.pat.edu.eg/stem

Candidates will have to pass:

- a. An aptitude test (Online)
- b. English Language Proficiency tests (Online reading and writing and face to face listening and speaking)
- c. A subject related competency test (Leadership test for principals or deputy principal). (Face to face) to qualify for an interview aimed to select the successful candidates. Some of these tests will be online and others will be held at the PAT. If you are interested in applying, please click on the link to fill an application at: <http://www.pat.edu.eg/stem> (STEM نموذج التقديم لوظائف)

and send your formal status page at stem@pat.edu.eg

General guidelines

- Plagiarism in the tests will result in excluding from the process
- Submitting an IELTS/TOEFL test certificate exempts applicants from the English tests.
- Applicants will be held responsible for any wrong data they enter in their application.